

Date: 29/03/2023

Stocks in news today

Zydus Lifesciences: Company has received the final approval for Loperamide hydrochloride capsules from the USFDA. Loperamide hydrochloride capsule is indicated for the control and symptomatic relief of acute nonspecific diarrhea and chronic diarrhea associated with inflammatory bowel disease.

Larsen and Toubro: Company on Tuesday said it has issued non-convertible debentures (NCDs) worth Rs 2,000 crore, which will mature on April 28, 2028. The debentures are proposed to be listed on the National Stock Exchange of India Ltd and the interest on the said debentures will be paid on an annual basis, the company added.

KEI Industries: The company has entered into a strategic association with Royal Challengers Bangalore (RCB) as Principal Partner for the Indian Premier League (IPL) for three years. Under the deal, players and official team members of RCB will sport the KEI logo on the back of their official match jersey, KEI Industries said in a statement.

NTPC: NTPC Renewable Energy will supply 1,300 MW of round-the-clock clean power to Greenko's upcoming green ammonia plant at Kakinada. NTPC Renewable Energy Ltd., a wholly-owned subsidiary of NTPC.

Jindal Stainless: Company has entered into a collaboration agreement with New Yaking Pte Ltd for the investment in development, construction and operation of a nickel pig iron (NPI) smelter facility in Halmahera Islands, Indonesia.

NBCC: The company has secured work orders worth Rs 146.39 crore. The first order of Rs 46.39 crore is for construction of a hostel building, a boundary wall, and other works at Ghani Khan Choudhary Institute of Engineering and Technology in Malda, West Bengal. The second order of Rs 100 crore is bagged from Small Industrial Development Bank of India for various work of SIDBI buildings on a pan-India basis.